

Glacier K9 Client Release

I understand that, despite Glacier K9's efforts to maintain the safety of every dog and human at Glacier K9, there are risks involved in doggie daycare and boarding. These risks include but are not limited to scratches or bites to me or my dog, my dog getting injured during play or altercation with another dog. My dog may also contract fleas, lice, kennel cough or some illness or parasite, even though they have been vaccinated and encouraged to administer Frontline. Additionally, this may happen anywhere on the premises; including the parking lot, lobby, along the play area and boarding.

If my dog becomes ill or injured while at Glacier K9, I accept full responsibility for veterinary bills and all other costs incurred due to the illness or injury. Again including but not limited to, holiday or after hours vet bills. If I sign my dog up for the field trip walk, I agree that this release also applies to any claims, injuries or damages while on the field trip.

I voluntarily accept these risks and release Glacier K9 and its owners and employees from any and all claims for or arising out of injury or damage or damage to me or anyone with me and to my dog in any way related to or resulting from my use of the Glacier K9 services or my association with Glacier K9. This acceptance of risk and release includes but is not limited to claims of injuries or loss of my dog, myself or anyone with me, along with anyone who picks up or drops off my dog, or to any property that belongs to me.

I agree that I will not bring my dog to Glacier K9 if I am aware that my dog is exhibiting any signs of sneezing, vomiting, diarrhea, coughing, lethargy or any other indication of illness and otherwise certify that, to the best of my knowledge, my dog is in good health with no listed signs for one week prior to attending Glacier K9.

I agree that my dog does not have a history of aggressive behavior towards other dogs or humans.

I am aware that there is an additional holiday rate for certain days of the year that are covered on GlacierK9.com.

I agree that I am at least 18 years of age and have full unrestricted right and authority to enter in this release.
